

General Liability

PURPOSE: In order to protect each other and the work in which Healthy Niños participates in Honduras, we ask that each person participating in a service trip complete this form. There are always risks involved in traveling and Healthy Niños Honduras (hereinafter referred to as HNH) has done its best to inform the volunteers of the risks and necessary precautions. Please do not hesitate to contact HNH with further questions regarding your travels.

DEFINITION: As used herein, “the Trip” includes without limitation all events occurring while en route to or from or in Honduras.

RESPONSIBILITIES: HNH doesn’t want to be sued or risk liability for personal injury, wrongful death or property damage arising from or related to participation in the Trip.

By participating in the Trip, the team member is agreeing to the following responsibilities:

1. Being prepared physically, emotionally, mentally and spiritually for this trip. The scheduling environment and other foreign travel condition may be difficult or different than expected. Flexibility in various situations is required.
2. Healthy Niños Honduras, Inc. staff and leaders have the right to represent any team members in decisions relating to his/her welfare or the group welfare during the trip. Team members are requested to follow all directions or suggestions provided.
3. The mission trip will be handled by the team leader and HNH staff in Honduras. Team members are expected to follow the mission trip and mission house rules stated either orally or written.
4. Team members are visiting Honduras as a guest of Healthy Niños and actions will reflect the work and efforts of the ministry. During the Trip, team members are asked to adhere to the stringent policies of not using of tobacco, illicit drugs or alcoholic beverages around the group or at the work site and mission house.
5. Participating in the Trip involves risks of injury. For example, and without limitation, these risks include: environmental conditions, building or equipment failure, lack of building codes, construction work or clean up, acts of God, criminal activity, contaminated food or water, disease, lack of supervision, the negligence or physical limitations of myself, my child, and others, or Healthy Niños Honduras Inc.'s negligence.

6. By participating in the Trip, a team member forever RELEASES Healthy Niños Honduras, Inc. from any and all liabilities and claims for any Injury or Illness arising out of or related to the Trip. The team member will not, on behalf of his/herself or anyone else, sue or make a claim against Healthy Niños Honduras, Inc. for any Injury or Illness, even if the Injury or Illness is caused by Healthy Niños Honduras, Inc.'s negligence. The team member will indemnify and hold Healthy Niños Honduras, Inc. harmless from all damages, claims, and liability, including without limitation attorneys' fees and costs, related to any Injury, Illness, or breach of this agreement by themselves or others.
7. If a team member needs medical care, including surgery, while with Healthy Niños Honduras, Inc., HNH will be authorized and appointed, to secure any and all available medical attention, including surgery, and a team member specifically authorizes HNH to sign on his/her behalf any and all permission forms, release forms, etc. U.S. auto and health insurance are not valid in Honduras. If any costs are incurred from hospitalization, the team member assumes all responsibility. Healthy Niños provides an international health travel insurance plan that may reimburse some expenses. However, the responsibility of completing claims and following up on reimbursement falls on the team member. Additional information about the insurance plan can be provided upon request.
